

Planning PP' 10 – Things to see and do

Welcome to Washington – the Evergreen State:

<http://www.experiencewa.com>

Plan your trip to include: whale watching, hiking, Washington wineries, microbreweries, shop for unique made in Washington items, go hiking in the mountains, watch the sunset over the Pacific and see the volcano (Mount St. Helens is the crown jewel of Southwest Washington and one of the many wonders of the world <http://www.visitmtsthelens.com>)

- Tour Argus Ranch, the site of PP' 10 <http://www.argusranch.com/index.html>
- Flaming Geyser State Park is nearby http://www.stateparks.com/flaming_geyser.html
- If you are feeling lucky, try the Muckleshoot Casino www.muckleshootcasino.com
- There are plenty of stores at the nearby Super Mall <http://supermall.com>
- Auburn is just a few miles away from Argus Ranch: http://auburntourism.com/To_Do.asp
- At 14,411 feet, Mt Rainier is the tallest mountain in the lower 48: <http://www.visitrainier.com>
- Free-roaming wildlife on 435-acre at Northwest Trek <http://www.nwtrek.org>

Things to do in the Emerald City - Seattle: <http://www.seattleattractions.com>

- See Seattle from land and lake: <http://www.ridetheducksofseattle.com>
- Go underground and learn about Seattle's secret past: <http://www.undergroundtour.com>
- Watch fish tossing, shop produce and handmade crafts: <http://www.pikeplacemarket.org>
- See marine animals up close: <http://www.seattleaquarium.org>
- Enjoy the exhibits: <http://www.seattleartmuseum.org>
- Coffee and Chocolate with other delights: <http://www.savorseattletours.com>
- Learn about animal conservation at the Woodland Park Zoo <http://www.zoo.org>
- From the Kitty Hawk to the Moon it is all here: <http://www.museumofflight.org>
- Let Fido run at the park: <http://www.cityofseattle.net/parks/offleash.asp>

Seattle Center (housed the 1962 World's Fair) has many activities: SeattleCenter.com including -

- View the city from the top: <http://www.spaceneedle.com>
- More than listening - Experience Music Project: <http://www.empsfm.org>
- I-Max screen, Laser show and science exhibits: <http://www.pacsci.org>
- A fun, quick and convenient link to downtown: <http://www.seattlemonorail.com>

Tacoma is the City of Destiny, where Art and Nature meet: <http://www.traveltacoma.com>

- Watch glass blowing and see beautiful glass art: <http://www.museumofglass.org>
- Cross the 500 foot pedestrian Chihuly Bridge of Glass free to the public 24 hours a day.
- Collection of pioneer, Indian and Alaskan artifacts: <http://www.washingtonhistory.org>
- Ride a camel at the Point Defiance Zoo: <http://www.pdza.org> or enjoy a nice walk with Fido winding through Point Defiance Park's old growth forest on Five Mile Drive with viewpoints providing opportunities to relax and take pictures.

Eat, sleep and drink your way across Oregon: <http://www.traveloregon.com>

Crisscrossed by rivers, mountains and vineyards, Metropolitan Portland offers more than urban adventure. The Coast has 365 miles dotted with lighthouses, fishing villages and dramatic scenery. From covered bridges to the Oregon Trail, there is plenty to do and see.

Smart, city-savvy and fun, CityDog brings the joys of life with our four-legged friends to dog lovers throughout the West, checkout dog friendly places and ideas: <http://www.citydogmagazine.com>

You will not be able to do it all, but you can have fun trying!